

Funeral.—The body of the late steamer California, from Glasgow, arrived at Halifax yesterday morning, having been towed by the Belgian man-of-war, which broke her up in Saturday evening in her passage from New York. She was picked up by the M. S. "Albatross." She will be buried at sea. The California sailed at 9 o'clock the same eve-

